

Character Concept Sample

Name: Erica Vera

Age: 18 yr

Parents: Selaine Lamon (adopted)

Species: Human

Powers: Small amounts of defensive magic. Strength and speed increase when she slices her skin with 'The Exodus Blade'

Occupation: Assassin/Rogue

Background

We are within the city of Nevvaa, where a mixture of crime and barbaric magic reign supreme. Due to the rebellion ten years ago, the kingdom has been destroyed and the royal family was driven out of the city. This city is now a scene of anarchy with no laws or authorities, only corrupted gangs hoping to move up the ranks and take over. However, all is not lost, as there is a selection of mages and freedom fighters who fight against these groups, one being the extremely powerful witch: Selaine Lamon.

Not knowing her parents and being alone on the streets of Nevvaa, Erica was forced into a life of petty crime. She got good at it; quick at stealing food, hiding from guards, and finding places to sleep. One day, she found herself in the south of Nevvaa and, as she knew of the dangers of this area, broke into a small, unsuspecting house as a getaway. There were a few magical wards that she destroyed and once she found the house to be abandoned, she slept near her entrance. She awoke to Selaine Lamon staring at her in awe, wondering how she got through such powerful protective magic. Selaine then offered Erica refuge and protection if she would allow Selaine to train her to become a killer. She accepted.

During Erica's years of training, Selaine is also gaining a group of freedom fighters, all working to defeat gangs who are looking to take advantage of those impoverished in this lawless city.

After she had finally finished her training, Selaine made Erica a magical blade that would embed her blood and body with unbridled power, the Exodus Blade. She then uses this weapon and her skills to kill anyone threatening her mentor.

Appearance

Small, muscular, and acrobatic.

- Face: soft features, blue eyes, and smooth skin - all contrasted with various scars and bruises.
- Hair: Long, black, and put up into a tight bun.
- Body: Various tattoos that show her allegiance to Selaine and scars. Small but athletic frame, around 5ft 5" in height.

Game Play

Erica can blend in with the crowd whilst walking through a populated street, hiding from those who may be looking for her. She also can hide in small, shadowy areas, jumping out on assailants if needed.

She has a sneak attack if approaching unsuspecting people (either from the shadows or from their blindspots).

She can use a small amount of defensive magic during combat with her daggers. If the player wants to use the magic within the Exodus Blade, they can activate it during combat. When they do, she slices into her skin and time slows around Erica, making her faster and her attacks become stronger. This can give her an advantage in combat, but everytime she uses the Exodus blade her health goes down.